

*What Former Intelligence Officers and experts said about Z
by Jonar Nader:*

“This is compulsive reading at its most compelling.

In a cleverly crafted but unpretentious story, Jonar Nader investigates the facets of human endeavor that design our future. His extrapolation is blindingly credible and has a scaring finality about it.

Science, technology, and human nature are, in Nader’s analysis, exciting, creative, and potent — but they are also a lethal combination.

In this seminal work, Nader postulates a ‘tipping point’ for the future of mankind. His timely and relevant predictions give us the chance to chart a better course — but we’d better not leave it too late. This has to be compulsory reading for every leader, manager, and parent from all races, religions, and beliefs — indeed, anyone who cares; anyone who wants to make a difference.”

Rear Admiral Peter Clarke

Former Nuclear Submarine Commander, British Royal Navy.

Submarine Group Commander, Royal Australian Navy.

Head of Knowledge Systems, Defence Force Organisation.

'Nader has put the civilized world on notice. He convincingly describes a plausible scenario that even the most ruthless observers had never before imagined — not even in their wildest and worst of dreams. This book sounds the alarm for those who guard this world, whether they be in Government, Law, or Intelligence. Let this be an official warning about the dangers we will face if we do not unite against modern, sophisticated, and educated terrorists whose imagination might dwarf everything we think we fear about terrorism.'

*Major
Alexander Y. Ronsky*

INVESTIGATION AND COUNTERESPIONAGE EXPERT.
FORMER OFFICER
KGB

D

'An excellent story.'

Ted St. Clair-Holmes

FORMER INTELLIGENCE OFFICER BRITISH ARMY INTELLIGENCE

'Shocking and sleep-depriving. You know that something is going to happen, but you can never quite anticipate the magnitude of Jonar's horrifying concept. He reveals it in the manner of a magician. What we fear today pales next to his new and unknown world.'

Ralph P. Harp

FORMER SPECIAL AGENT
FBI

I

'This creative book is typical of how terrorists think and dream. We had better keep an eye on Nader! He has redefined the meaning of weapons of mass destruction, and in so doing, he has strengthened the resolve of intelligence agencies to consider the impossible and the improbable. His excellent scientific research is akin to Tom Clancy's best-sellers.'

Michael R. Spak

FORMER OPERATIONS OFFICER
CIA

'This book very effectively brings into sharp focus our rapidly growing ability to alter our own biology with all the risks and rewards it promises. It is a gripping story-line that raises issues about the fundamental make-up of humanity. In highlighting our progress to cure disease, Nader graphically illustrates the enormity of what such insight could mean.'

Professor John Shine

AO FAA

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
GARVAN INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL RESEARCH

V

'Don't read this book if you want to sleep soundly or ever feel completely safe and secure again. If you already have fears for the future, this could tip you over the edge. And remember, just because you might be paranoid, it does not mean that they are not after you.'

Janice Young
TITLE WITHHELD

‘This novel draws you into current world events that are entrenched in greed, power, manipulation, and half-truths — but the agenda is never what it seems! Is there any room for idealists? Jonar poses some very good questions about human tragedy, but is there any hope of triumph?’

Bishop

George Browning

ANGLICAN BISHOP OF CANBERRA AND GOULBURN

I

‘Provocative and exhilarating. Highly recommended for intelligence professionals and national decision-makers alike.’

Dr Ian Wing

PRESIDENT
AUSTRALIAN INSTITUTE OF PROFESSIONAL
INTELLIGENCE OFFICERS

D

‘A fascinating and scary foreboding that is not out of reach. Once you start reading, you won’t put it down.’

Dr A. L. Mollin

FORMER CAPTAIN
UNITED STATES
ARMY

‘Outstanding. This book must be read and re-read by everyone engaged in law-enforcement, counter-intelligence, and counter-terrorism. It will impress upon us the definite need to be vigilant, and to question every turn in an investigation. This is especially true for executives and supervisors.’

J. Brian McKee

FORMER DIRECTOR
NAVAL INVESTIGATIVE SERVICE
(NIS)

E

‘A military thriller that takes us on a journey through the darker parts of mankind’s soul. Nader is what you get when you combine the best of Tom Clancy with the best of Stephen King. This book will alter your views about our infatuation with science. It offers a sobering look into the future we face, if the world’s morals and technological advances continue on their current paths.’

Colonel Jeff Appleget

UNITED STATES
ARMY

‘An unnerving look into the devastation that could result when science collides with corporate greed.’

Ronald Myers

FORMER CASE AGENT FOR DOMESTIC TERRORISM
FBI

**■

‘Hang on to your seats, and open your eyes. I promise you that Jonar Nader’s credible yet very frightening novel is compulsive reading. It will make you think deeply about where today’s human race is headed. Nader mixes new and exciting technologies inside a globalized world that is controlled by multi-national corporations who are working beyond the limits of the nation-state. Along the way, ordinary people are swept up by events that turn into the ultimate of Faustian bargains!’

Admiral Chris Barrie

AC RAN
FORMER CHIEF OF THE AUSTRALIAN DEFENCE FORCE

‘Mr Nader presents us with a mind-numbing premise. Is the “human race” a timed event after all? Will today’s world win the war on terror, only to lose it all to the age-old evils of corruption and greed? Will the very technology intended to save us, actually trigger our demise? Who are today’s “techno-terrorists” and who is watching them? Let us hope we can find a way out of this.’

Thomas B. Locke

FORMER FBI EXECUTIVE WHO DIRECTED THE 9/11 INITIAL RESPONSE TEAM AT FBI HEADQUARTERS. SUPERVISOR OF FBI’S FIRST JOINT TERRORISM TASK FORCE IN NEW YORK CITY AND WORKED ON SPECIAL ASSIGNMENTS WITH THE DRUG ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION (DEA) AND THE US ARMY. THROUGHOUT HIS 32-YEAR CAREER, HE RECEIVED COMMENDATIONS FROM ALL SIX DIRECTORS OF THE FBI.

E

‘Nader has created a frightening prophecy. Be warned!’

Ken Bullock

FORMER SPECIAL DUTIES AIRCREW OFFICER ROYAL CANADIAN AND AUSTRALIAN NAVIES

‘Finally, a philosophically brilliant, imaginative novel that clearly shows an understanding of how technology, greed, and terrorism can meld into an horrific threat to humanity. Nader has painted a signpost to the almost unimaginable possibilities about a future that our security services and world leaders must ponder!’

Barry H. Wallace

SECURITY ANALYST. FORMER SPECIAL AGENT FBI

T

‘Be warned that this scary book will jolt you. It reveals a devastating plot with realistic connotations. Your comfort zone will never be the same again.’

The Hon Tim Fischer

FORMER DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER OF AUSTRALIA. ARMY OFFICER WHO SERVED IN VIETNAM. LEADER OF THE NATIONAL PARTY. MINISTER FOR TRADE.

Q

‘The only villain in this novel may well turn out to be the author.’

Danny White

ABC

‘On top of what we know and fear about terrorism, Nader has portrayed the ultimate challenge for any intelligence organization beyond anything that experienced operatives would ever have imagined.’

Warren Reed

FORMER INTELLIGENCE OFFICER AUSTRALIAN SECRET INTELLIGENCE SERVICE (ASIS) TRAINED BY MI6

I

‘Jonar has created legal complexities that are as fascinating as the story itself.’

Judge Mervyn E. King

SC BA LLB

SENIOR COUNSEL AND FORMER JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF SOUTH AFRICA. FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE COMMONWEALTH ASSOCIATION OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE. SOUTH AFRICAN REPRESENTATIVE TO THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF ARBITRATION IN PARIS. MEMBER OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR ADVISORY GROUP ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE TO THE WORLD BANK. GOVERNOR OF THE INTERNATIONAL CORPORATE GOVERNANCE NETWORK.

‘Diabolical!

An author ought to obtain a license before being allowed to publish fiction that borders on faction. If it can open my eyes to new possibilities, I worry about the ideas it can give people on the wrong side of the law.

What’s really scary about this story is that my own brother wrote it.’

T. C. Nader

FORMER OFFICER,
EDUCATIONAL CORPS, AUSTRALIAN ARMY.
FORMER INSTRUCTOR,
COUNTER DISASTER COLLEGE

M

‘I can’t for one minute predict what’s going to happen next. It’s full of surprises.’

Sister

Anne Gabrielle Love

ORDER OF ST JOSEPH

P

‘Look out Jack Bauer! Look out Sydney Bristow! Make way for Nader’s new novel in which corporate greed and power ultimately lead to dire and tragic consequences for all mankind.’

R. Allen Martin

FORMER SPECIAL AGENT
FBI

‘Nader conjures up the worst scenario for the world’s counter terrorism forces. This book is twisted. It delivers riveting action in a context of modern global issues. Who Dares... Reads.’

Andrew Larkey

FORMER CAPTAIN
SAS

E

‘Jonar has created a world of smoke and mirrors to make us wonder if we ever really know what is behind the headlines, the 30-second grabs, and the press releases.’

Ian W. Shaw

SECURITY ANALYST.
FORMER OPERATIONS ADVISER
AUSTRALIAN SECURITY
INTELLIGENCE ORGANISATION
(ASIO)

R

‘Nader’s mesmerizing mind-bender has the possibility of resembling a real situation in the future. Let us hope it never happens in the real world.’

W. Kirby Sumner

FORMER SPECIAL AGENT
AND ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
US NAVAL CRIMINAL
INVESTIGATIVE SERVICE
(NCIS)

‘This book is a pleasure to read. Nader makes us realize that if we are to win the war on terror, we must have the courage and the nerve to be absolutely merciless. Those who hesitate will lose. This book brilliantly shows the dangers of scientific developments, especially if they fall into the hands of the enemy. For the sake of our children, and for the sake of peace, we must never allow that to happen.’

Captain

Vladimir N. Sauchenko

FORMER OFFICER
KGB

A

‘An intriguing and ingenious twenty-first century plot, perfected by good old-fashioned character development. This is a strong story and a great read. Jonar should put a caveat in his Will to ensure that his brain is donated to medical science.’

Dr Rob Goodfellow

VISITING FELLOW
CAPSTRANS INSTITUTE